Dear Mr Weisberg,
Sorry to hear that you were ill. I hope that you are feeling better.
If you haven't read "Conspiracy Interpretations of President Kennedy's Assassination" by A. Goldberg, I'll see that you get a copy.
Grosset and Dunlap will publish "The Murder of John F. Kennedy" by Judy Bonner.

Penn Jones has published "Grief III".

H.R.W. has scheduled Lane's "Arcadia" but I believe that it concerns another subject.

The failure of the Garrison probe to produce anything new or of dramatic media attention at the Shaw Trial has reinforced publisher resistance to the topic.

So it seems predictable that without a dramatic "breakthrough", the climate of opinion will remain unchanged.

Sincerely,

Edward Williams
